aim of the subject

This subject aims to:

1. Introduce the student to the basics of musical compositions.
2. Develop creative thinking in general.

content

Theoretical and practical work on short compositions, suites and variations.

Composition of works for solo instruments, for voice with and without accompaniment, different ensemble settings (of at least three instruments).

Learning the basics of musical notation and score layout.

learning outcomes

On completion of the subject, students are able to adequately express their musical ideas and to create a clearly readable and practically applicable score.

assessment

Non-differentiated assessment:

- Presentation of scores written during the semester;
- If possible, the more important works should be presented as live performances or recordings.

assessment criteria

A positive assessment result is obtained by students who:

- are able to adequately express their musical ideas;
- are able to create a clearly readable and practically applicable score.
