aim of the subject

Aim of the course is to design, develop and deepen the students' cultural and communicative competence and willingness to work in multicultural environment.

The aim is to polish their skills in using the English language level B1 and identify problems related to the speciality in a foreign language.

content

Language learning is based on the CEFR content (B1) – development of all four foreign language dimensions (listening, reading, speaking, writing). Topics related to student's person and profession, native country and cultural history.

Independent work: oral and written homework; developing one's opinion on the basis of reading texts and preparation of the conversation topics; writing a letter; preparation of the written text and its oral presentation to fellow students.

learning outcomes

Student

- knows, distinguishes and interprets the texts relating to student and his speciality as well as the language and culture;
- Selects the material and uses his linguistic knowledge in preparation of the summary of the professional text;
- Submits a brief professional report;
- Uses grammatically correct language structures to express an opinion in writing and orally.
